

"The students in the Reading Saturday program saw a high promotion rate. We are certain that your dedicated volunteers played a valuable role in these students' success stories."

 Jane Goff, Asst Principal, Dunleith

"The Reading Saturday instructors and volunteers turned reading into fun for my son, Christian. They helped him pass his CRT and go on to second grade without attending summer school."

 Jennifer Cole, parent

"To see the progress the kids make each week and the enthusiasm with which they participate is more than enough to get my morning going. Even the mentors have commented on how much they enjoy what they do each Saturday."

 Courtney Davis, site coordinator, Park Street Elementary

"Before Reading Saturday, Anthony would get mad when I told him to read a book. Now he loves to read. He reads at night without me telling him to. I also see a big difference in his grades."

 Patricia Merino, parent

"I can't tell you how happy I am to hear about Mia's progress. Mia is doing well at A.L. Burruss as well. I spoke with her teacher and she informed me that Mia no longer goes to special reading lab. Mia is doing so well because of your hard work and attention."

 Parent of a RS student

"Griffin has been struggling with learning how to read. Thanks to your help and the talented volunteers who participate in your program, Griffin has recently raised a full letter grade on his last report card. Further, it looks like Griffin will have no problem passing the standardized tests and going on to the second grade."

 Leah Pease, parent

"Reading Saturday improved Tyriana's reading skills and gave her confidence. She has learned to read fluently."

 Tyrone & Angele Vaughns, parent

"Maria shows more control over reading and has improved on spelling tests. She now likes to read alone."

 Carlos Hernandez, parent
